(b) If a board commences an emergency proceeding, the board shall conduct an adjudicative hearing within the time specified in the statute upon which the action is based, which for actions commenced under RSA 541-A:30, III is not later than 10 working days after the date of the board's order suspending the license, to determine whether to continue the suspension of the respondent's license pending a full adjudication of the matter.

(f) If applicable law establishes different elements of proof, the prosecutor shall have the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence on each such element.

(g) The license suspension shall be continued pending a full adjudication of the matter only if the prosecutor meets the burden of proof established in (e) or (f), above, as applicable.

(i) A full evidentiary hearing to determine final disciplinary sanctions or non-disciplinary remedial measures shall only be held more than 60 days after the date of the initial emergency suspension if:

(1) The prosecutor and the respondent agree to delay the proceeding; or

(2) More time is needed to obtain information that is necessary to make a final determination, provided that the hearing shall be held no later than 120 days from the date of the initial emergency suspension unless the information is not available within that time due to:

Any participant who objects to a ruling of the presiding officer regarding evidence or procedure made at a time other than during an adjudicative hearing shall file a written objection to the ruling in the form of a motion within 5 working days of the date of the ruling. - (2) Receipt of all additional information and explanations requested from the petitioner pursuant to Plc 210.04(d); or

- (2) Receipt of all additional information and explanations requested from the petitioner pursuant to Plc 210.04(d); or
- (3) Receipt of advice from the department of justice, if advice is requested.

(c) If additional information is requested from the petitioner and is not received in time for a decision to be made and declaratory ruling issued within 60 days of receipt of the petition, the executive director or board, as applicable, shall request the petitioner to agree to an extension as provided in RSA 541-A:29, IV. If the petitioner does not agree to an extension and a reasoned decision cannot be made without the information requested from the petitioner, the petition shall be denied and no declaratory ruling shall be issued.

(d) If advice from the department of justice is requested and is not expected to be received within 60 days of receipt of the petition, the executive director or board, as applicable, shall request the petitioner to agree to an extension as provided in RSA 541-A:29, IV. If the petitioner does not agree to an extension, the regulatory authority shall make a decision within 60 days of receipt. If the decision is to deny the petition, no declaratory ruling shall be issued.

(e) A copy of each declaratory ruling shall be filed with the director of legislative services as required by RSA 541-A:16, II(b).

(f) A copy of each declaratory ruling or denial of a petition shall be:

- (d) Whether the requested waiver would harm or otherwise operate to the disadvantage of any third person(s), whether other actual or potential licensees or the general public;
- (e) Whether the petitioner is proposing an alternative to the requirement for which the petition is being filed and, if so, what the alternative is and why it is adequate to meet the intent of the requirement for which the petition is being filed; and
- (f) Any additional information the petitioner believes provides good cause for granting the requested waiver, including but not limited to citations to statutes, rules, orders, or other authority that support the waiver being requested.

Plc 211.05 Service of Petition for Waiver.

- (a) If the petition asserts that any other identifiable person(s) would be harmed or otherwise disadvantaged by the proposed relief, the petitioner shall:
 - (1) Serve the petition on each such person; and
 - (2) Advise such persons of their right to reply to the petition within 10 days of receipt of service.
- (b) If the petitioner has not served the petition as provided in (a), above, but the decision maker determines, after examination of the petition, that other identifiable person(s) would be materially affected by the proposed relief, the decision maker shall require the petitioner to serve the petition on such persons as provided in (a), above.

Plc 211.06 Responding to Petition for Waiver.

- (a) Any person who receives service of a petition pursuant to Plc 211.05 who wishes to respond to the petition shall file a written response within 10 days of receipt of the petition that includes:

 - (5) The action the person filing the response wishes the board to take.

- (b) The person filing the response shall sign and date the response.
- (c) The signature shall constitute a certification that:
 - (1) The signer has read the response;

 - (3) To the best of the signer's knowledge and belief, there are good grounds to support the response.

Plc 211.07 Proceedings on Petition for Waiver.

- (a) The petitioner shall provide such further information or participate in such evidentiary or other proceedings as are ordered by the decision maker after reviewing the petition and any response(s) received.
- (b) If a request for waiver is made orally at an oral public hearing and the presiding officer finds that additional information is needed in order for the request to be fully and fairly considered, the presiding officer shall direct the requestor to submit the request in writing, with supporting information as specified in Plc 211.04, within 3 working days of the date of the oral request. If other participants in the proceeding wish to respond to the request, the response(s) shall be filed no later than 7 calendar days after the request is filed.

Plc 211.08 Decisions on Waiver Requests.

- (a) The decision maker shall rule upon a waiver request only after:
 - (1) Fully considering all factors relevant to the request; and
 - (2) Affirmatively finding that good cause, as described in (c) and (d), below, exists to grant a waiver.
- (b) If the decision maker does not find good cause exists to grant the requested waiver but finds good cause exists to grant a modified waiver that will provide the petitioner with at least some relief, the decision maker shall grant a modified waiver.
- (c) For the purposes of this section, good cause shall be determined with reference to the rule for which the waiver is sought, provided that:
 - (1) No statutory requirement shall be waived unless:
 - a. The statute expressly provides for such waivers; and
 - b. All criteria specified in the statute for granting a waiver are met;
 - (2) No waiver shall be granted that has the effect of authorizing conduct after the fact for which the board has imposed disciplinary sanctions in other cases, unless the rule is already in the formal rulemaking process to be revised in a way that allows the conduct; and
 - (3) No waiver shall be granted that allows a licensee to practice with less education or experience than is required, unless conditions are imposed on the licensee to require supervision for a specified period of time by a fully-licensed practitioner in good standing in the same profession.

(d) If good cause is not specifically defined in the rule for which a waiver is sought, good cause shall be deemed to exist if none of the prohibitions in (c), above, apply and:

- (1) Compliance with the rule cannot be achieved due to circumstances beyond the control of the person requesting the waiver and waiving the rule will not materially prejudice any other identifiable person or the general public;
- (2) Compliance with the rule would cause operational or economic consequences, or both, to the person requesting the waiver that outweigh any disadvantage caused to any other person(s) by granting the waiver; or
- (3) Compliance with the rule would otherwise be counterproductive to the purpose of the proceeding in which the waiver is sought, given the specific circumstances of the proceeding and the reason(s) for the waiver request.

Plc 211.09 Waivers Initiated by a Board. A board shall waive a rule upon its own motion only if the board:

- (a) Provides affected persons with notice and an opportunity to be heard; and

For any proceeding where the board is an advisory board, if the executive director determines that the technical expertise of the advisory board is needed to respond to a petition for a waiver, the executive director shall consult with the advisory board prior to making a decision on the request.

APPENDIX C: STATUTORY PROVISIONS

RSA 91-A:2

IV. The provisions of this paragraph allowing for less than a quorum to be physically present for meetings shall apply only to boards, committees, councils, advisory committees and like bodies of state government, not including the general court or either house thereof or any committee of either house, nor the governor and council, the composition of which is permitted by law or regulation to be drawn from individuals who may reside throughout the state of New Hampshire. This paragraph does not apply to boards, committees, councils, advisory committees, or any other components or instrumentalities of county or municipal government. For purposes of this paragraph only the boards, committees, councils, and like bodies to which this paragraph is applicable shall be referred to as "state boards."

(a) A state board covered by this paragraph may vote to allow one or more members to participate in a meeting remotely only when physical attendance at the meeting site is not reasonably practicable. (d) In an emergency, when immediate action is imperative and the physical presence requirement is not reasonably practicable within the period of time requiring action, the minimum physical presence required under subparagraph (b) shall not apply. The determination that an emergency exists shall be made by the chair or presiding officer of the state board, and the facts upon which that determination is based shall be included in the minutes of the meeting.
